Summary of Legislation: Authorizes a qualified organization to use volunteer ticket agents (VTA) and specifies the conditions applying to the use of a VTA. Specifies that charity gaming proceeds may be used to pay the salaries and benefits of a qualified organization's employees. Authorizes a qualified organization to accept credit cards for certain sales occurring at an allowable event. Prohibits the acceptance of credit cards or extending credit for the chance to play a game of chance or to purchase a licensed supply at an allowable event. Excludes revenue from related activities occurring at an allowable event from the determination of a qualified organization's license renewal fee. Provides that license renewal fees are capped at $1,000 per event in the case of a license that authorizes multiple events or $1,000 in the case of a license that authorizes a single event.

Effective Date: July 1, 2011.
